Makes sense. Also, I told her Rachel will complete the update today, but is unlikely to be finished before COB. Therefore, you may want to send any announcements to your list separately.

Also and for what it's worth, HQ asked me not to send out the river reopening announcement, saying we'll post it to the web page.

Thanks, R.

Robert:

We weren't 100% sure all of our contacts had been added to Vocus list Rachel is working on so – to be on the safe side – Lisa routed directly to our contacts.

You, Rich, Lisa, obviously. Who else?

Thanks, R.

Do you know if r8 contacts are included in this distribution?

In answer to previous? Callers can just ID the GoldKing mine as the conference call id. Less confusing as it changes everyday
